PROFILE

Frontend developer with a strong emphasis on clean, efficient code and intuitive user experiences. Proficient in core web technologies such as HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, with practical experience using modern tools including Next.js and Tailwind CSS to develop fast, responsive interfaces. Currently enhancing my capabilities in full-stack development through the MERN stack to deliver dynamic, end-to-end web solutions. I bring a design-conscious approach to development, backed by a commitment to continuous improvement and a genuine interest in emerging technologies and best practices.
